

KEY TAKEAWAYS

COURSE TITLE

SQL Basics: Database Creation & Updates

CHAPTER TITLE

Import data from a CSV file into a database

- 1 Backfilling is a process of adding more records to the initial set of databases where few records are already present.
- 2 MySQL provides an option to map column names between the destination table and the table from which the data is imported.

